The State of Karnataka,

Plaintiff,

vs.

John Doe,

Defendant.

Notice of Plaintiff's Intent to Prosecute

Dear Mr. John Doe,

You are hereby notified that the State of Karnataka intends to prosecute you for the alleged murder of Jane Smith, which occurred on March 15, 2024, at approximately 11:30 PM, near her place of work at 34, Main Street, Shivamogga.

The State of Karnataka has gathered substantial evidence linking you to the crime, including DNA found on the murder weapon, witness testimonies, and CCTV footage placing you at the scene. This evidence, along with your admitted altercation with the victim, will be presented at trial to demonstrate your involvement in the victim's death.

The State of Karnataka will seek to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that you intentionally caused the victim's death, thereby committing murder under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code (IPC). Your history of personal disputes with the victim may be used to establish motive in this case.

The State of Karnataka will ensure a fair trial, following the principles of impartiality and due process, as outlined in the STATE OF KARNATAKA V. NARSA REDDY case. This notice serves as formal notification of the State's intent to prosecute you for the aforementioned crime.

You are advised to seek legal counsel to represent you in this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
